PRESIDENT'S LETTER

The graduation season is upon us, as many of our clubs are preparing to launch new square dancers. As we welcome these new dancers into our fold, help them to feel comfortable at visitations and at their own club's dances. Include them in your square. Let them know that "to err is human" and not grounds for being a wallflower. The more floor time they get, the better they'll dance, and the more fun they will have dancing. Let's make it the fun activity they are hoping for, and we will reap the benefit of being blessed with great new dancers to lead the way in the future, as well as increased fun for all.

There are also many upcoming anniversary dances, which afford us with more opportunities for special dance visitations than usual. Check the calendar and take advantage of as many as you can.

The New Dancer Jamboree & Trade 'n' Buy is just around the corner from 1:00-4:00 pm, Sunday, April 15, at Westminster Christian Academy, 670 E Medical Center in Webster. Bring your new dancers to the dance, even if they haven't yet graduated. It is the perfect dance to help them "get their ears wet". They will meet many callers and other new dancers, practice their newly learned skills, and get some great bargains on square dance clothing. This will likely be their first opportunity to learn what HSRDC is all about. Let's make it a very positive experience for them. Don't forget to bring the clothing you have to sell. You make the dance a success, just like you learned at your graduation.

Remember to send any changes in your club's specials to Wayne & Donna Meiers, so they can update the special dance calendar, and remember that if you have advertised your dance in a Where n' When club or special ad, then you are entitled to ask Garland Smith to send out an e-mail reminder of it. That will increase attendance at your dances.

Don't forget to register for the TSFSRD State Festival in Wichita Falls on June 7-10. An application is included in the Where n' When. We are also starting early registration for the Hoedown in November. Last year's featured Hoedown caller, Lee Hailey, will be at the Wildcatters Fun Fest on May 12. If you liked him, put that dance on your calendar.

We will see you in square as we

Shine All Over Houston!

Dancing Right

By Brian White

This is the first of many articles I will submit to the Where n' When on square dancing correctly and making your dancing look nice. I'll present one or more movements each month and look at the correct definition and styling for each movement. I'm not saying you have to dance like a prude with your nose in the air but square dancing should be done with a little class, a little flair and a lot of style. Square dancing is a beautiful sport!

So, where do we start? How about at the very beginning. Let's start with the music and timing. If you do any other kind of dancing you have to stay with the beat! What if you and your partner were "Waltzing Across Texas" and only one of you was dancing to the beat. That would not look good, so why should square dancing be different? Take for instance a Grand Square. A Grand Square is a 32 beat movement. In other words, it is suppose to take 32 beats of music to complete. Sometimes dancers finish in 24 to 28 beats. If the caller calls a Grand Square in a singing call, he has to wait 32 beats to announce another call. If dancers complete the movement in less than 32 beats they are waiting for the caller and sometimes criticize the caller for calling too slow.

If you dance slower than the beat of the music it won't take long for you to miss a call. If you dance faster than the beat of the music you complete the calls ahead of time and have to wait until the caller calls the next movement. If you dance to the beat you will be a much smoother dancer and be able to dance more and be less tired at the end of the evening.

Enjoy your square dancing. Smile, greet everyone you aren't familiar with, give more hugs than you get, hand out more compliments than you get. Find someone you've never danced with or haven't in a long time and ask them to dance. Yes ladies, it's okay to ask a gentleman to dance!

If you have any comments about this article or have any suggestions on a subject you would like discussed you may email me at callerbrian@gmail.com.

regular callers.
All callers welcome.

There will be a reenactment of the Battle of San Jacinto
at 3:00pm!

We are thrilled to invite you to participate in the annual San Jacinto Day Festival and Battle Reenactment. This year's event marks the 176th Anniversary of Texas Independence and record attendance is anticipated! More than 20,000 visitors joined us at the San Jacinto Monument for the Festival in 2011. Highlights of the Festival include family entertainment, living history demonstrations, a children's area and vendors reflecting all things Texas. In the late afternoon the largest battle reenactment in the state celebrates the 1836 "Battle of San Jacinto".

Each year, this event is presented by the San Jacinto Museum of History Association to help make history come alive. It is the Museum Association's mission to reinforce classroom teaching and the public's knowledge of Texas History. By participating in the Festival, you can help us meet this goal.
