Dancing Across Texas....

by Linda Edwards

Recently we went dancing in Lubbock for the weekend. We were attending the TSFSRD Conclave there. The Conclave meeting is where the Federation officers for the coming year are elected. Their term of office begins July 1st.

The Conclave is one of four meetings that the Texas State Federation of Square and Round Dancers (TSFSRD) hold around the state each year. One of the meetings is held during the Texas State Festival. The other three (Presidents, Nominating and Conclave) are held over a weekend in different cities in Texas. They all have a similar format to the Conclave weekend that we attended in March.

Friday afternoon the West Texas dancers opened up a Hospitality Room to the dancers travelling into the area. Packets with area information were available here and also at the meeting on Saturday morning.

The Friday night dance was led by Callers and Cuers from the West Texas Callers and Teachers Association. The Saturday night dance featured Matt Barnes Calling and Lynn Myers on the Rounds. The TSFSRD Merchandising Chair, Linda Carlile, brought dance inspired items to sell. We bought a great tote bag that sold out. They may have more at the State Festival. Snacks were available on both nights, including an After Party on Saturday night. Ice cream was served and the Past Presidents of TSFSRD did a short skit. The newly elected Officers also led everyone in the Chicken Dance.

We had several Houston-area dancers in attendance, including Jerry Tucker, Bill & Kaye Lewis, Bill Jenkins, Sharon Green, Jerry & Linda Edwards, Clydette Osteen and Frank Hunter. I apologize if I forgot anybody.

Saturday morning was the TSFSRD Business Meeting. The Executive Committee was elected at this meeting. Jerry & Linda Edwards (us) were elected to the position of Secretary and became the newest members of the Executive Committee.

We had meetings to attend in the afternoon, but Jerry Tucker went to the National Ranching Heritage Center. There are several other museums in the area, including the Texas Air Museum and the American Wind Power Center. We saw many windmills on the drive.

The Host Hotel was the Clarion Hotel, but we stayed at America's Best Value Inn, along with several other dancers. They had a hot breakfast in the morning. It was usually scrambled eggs, sausage, biscuits and gravy. And, of course, the waffle maker.

If you have an opportunity to attend one of the TSFSRD weekends, I would encourage you to do so. There are dancers from all parts of Texas. For more information on the Federation Events, go to their website, www.squaredancetx.com.
