PRESIDENT'S LETTER

The graduation season is upon us, and we have already graduated new Frontier Squares and Hey Lollies. Other clubs will be having graduations soon. Our new dancers are very excited, and we are excited for them.

Those who attended the Trade n' Buy enjoyed some great dances, and many added some new square dance clothes to their wardrobes for very little "moola". We wish to thank all the callers who participated in this annual event, the Meiers for planning the event, the Belomys for providing beverages, and the Board for the cookies. A big thank you also to all who supplied clothing for the sale!

The next HSRDC meeting will be May 12, followed by the Wildcatter Squares Fun Fest, with Lee Hailey calling & the Prows cueing. There are several other special dances in May. Check your Where n' When and go visiting.

The HSRDC Board has new work shirts with our new logo on them. We will be wearing them at the Quarterly Meeting. You too can have the logo embroidered on a shirt. The cost of the logo itself is $20. (additional charge for adding your name). The Board chose a short-sleeved pique polo shirt, which is available at Penney's for $12. However, you may supply any shirt you want to have embroidered.

Have you seen the new electronic version of the Where n' When on our website? If you haven't, do take a look at it. You will like it! Susan Pittman is doing a fantastic job with this new project.

We hope to see you at the TSFSRD State Festival in Wichita Falls June 7-10. Follow the links on squarethru.com to TSFSRD and the State Festival to see details or to access a registration form on line.

We will also be attending the National Convention in Spokane and would like to know who of our HSRDC dancers will be there. For those of you who miss Bob & Joanne Wilson, they will be there.

Don't forget to put our Hoedown on your calendar for November 16-17.

We will see you in square as we

Shine All Over Houston!

Charles & Twyla Woody

Dancing Right

By Brian White

A big thanks to all of you that let me know how much you enjoyed reading the article in last month's W n' W. I'm glad it was so well received.

Let's look at some other things that could possibly make you a better and smoother dancer. I'll start with a very basic movement, the Do-sa-do.

DEFINITION: A Do-sa-do is known as a zero movement. You start and end in the exact same place but you do something in between. A Do-sa-do is most often done with the person directly in front of you. You pass the person you are facing right shoulder to right shoulder, slide back to back and back up left shoulder to left shoulder to end in facing dancers. This puts you right back in the spot you were in before you begin the movement.

DISCUSSION: A lot of dancers do a swing Do-sa-do and automatically end up in an ocean wave. If you do this chances are that you will be out of position to do the next call. Unless the caller calls a Do-sa-do to an Ocean Wave you should end the Do-sa-do face to face with the person with which you did the Do-sa-do. If you want to do a swing Do-sa-do just make sure you end up face to face and not in an ocean wave. If the person you Do-sa-do with does not want to do a swing Do-sa-do do not force the issue.

There is also a Left Do-sa-do. For a Left Do-sa-do each dancer passes left shoulders, slides to their left back to back and backs up right shoulder to end as facing dancers. This call was previously known as a See Saw. A See Saw was used by the caller to prepare the dancers for a left handed setup for a Left Swing Thru or Left Touch A Quarter or any other left hand call.

A caller may also call a Do-sa-do Once and a Half.

If this is called and you do a swing Do-sa-do your square is broken down. A Do-sa-do Once and a Half is a full Do-sa-do, then pass right shoulders again and end up back to back with the dancer you were just facing. Yes, the caller could have just called a Do-sa-do and then a Pass Thru but you know how we callers can be. Chances are that if the caller did call a Do-sa-do and a Pass Thru and you did a swing Do-sa-do your square would still be broken down.

The most important thing I'm trying to get across is, if the caller calls a Do-sa-do don't automatically step to an Ocean Wave.

STYLING: Doing a Do-sa-do correctly (back-to-back) gives the ladies a chance to do skirt work if they choose, this is always pretty. Ladies with both hands on your skirt, moving skirt forward and back to avoid opposite dancer, right hand forward as right shoulders pass, left hand forward as left shoulders pass.

Men have the option to either have their arms in a natural relaxed dancing position or they could clasp their hands behind them. Men's right shoulders slightly forward as right shoulders pass, left shoulders slightly forward as left shoulders pass.

NOTICE TO ALL CLUBS...

If you have interesting information about your clubs' activities or members, and you feel it would be of interest to others, send the information to Mary Pickens, Editor (marypickens_1@sbcglobal.net). The copy does not have to be camera ready, I will type it according to the space available.

Let's put some life back into our Where n' When.

GUIDELINES FOR AD SUBMISSION FOR THE ELECTRONIC WHERE N WHEN

Your electronic ad needs to be the same size as your print ad. We are reproducing the print version of the Where N When, but adding color, hyperlinks, searchable text, etc.

The ads for the electronic version do not have to match the print version in content, you can add graphics, photographs and color to the electronic version of the ad.

You can submit any kind of graphic file (.gif, .jpg, .wmf, etc) or you can submit a document (.doc, .docx) file.

Photographs are permitted, but keep in mind that the file size (the number of bytes (KB or MB)) should be reduced. Larger files mean slower loading times. Picasa is a free photo editing application that you can use to reduce file size for photographs.

To maintain the quality of the print version of the WnW, your camera ready ad for the print version should be submitted in black and white to Mary Pickens at marypickens_1@sbcglobal.net. The print version will continue to be produced in black and white. Your ad for the on-line version of the WnW, with color and graphics should be submitted to Susan Pittman at stpittman@comcast.net.

A mobile version for your smartphone is not yet available, however, most smartphones will view PDF files.

If you have questions or comments about the electronic version, please contact Susan Pittman at stpittman@comcast.net.

Houston Callers Association News

I would like to take this opportunity to extend a big welcome back to Wayne Morvent. Wayne has had more than his fair share of doctors and hospitals the past few months. We are glad to see him with a microphone in his hands again!

I would like to remind all the local clubs that the callers of the HCA will gladly call a dance at your club. We book one club each quarter. Any HSRDC member club is eligible. A club may only book us every other year. Available callers call the dance at no charge; however, if we are offered an honorarium we do not turn it down. We book these dances so that all dancers get to hear callers they may not be familiar with. Callers give their time and talent in hopes of securing a booking from the club.

Our second quarter dance is at the Fairbees on Thursday, May 10, 2012. The third quarter dance will be at the Tomball Promenaders on Saturday, September 8, 2012. WE are looking for a club to host us in the fourth quarter for our annual Toys for Tots dance. We will also take bookings for 2012. Please let me know if your club would be interested. My email address is callerbrian@gmail.com.

Did you know the HCA has our own Facebook page? Please join us if you haven't already done so. Also don't forget our website, houstoncallersassociation.com. Wade Driver is our webmaster and does a wonderful job. Log onto our website and look around.

Have fun dancing! Brian White, President, HCA
