From the President.....

May brings a great opportunity for Houston's dancers to get out, and dance at several milestone dances as clubs celebrate annual specials and anniversaries with a host of national callers. Houston is home to the greatest dancers and the best callers in Texas, Enjoy this bounty and help our clubs celebrate 2015.

Now is also the time to send in your registration for the state festival in June AS WELL AS the time to register for the Houston Hoedown. Our 2nd QTR Council Meeting is this month and all dancers in Houston are asked to attend. One of our greatest privileges is the right to participate in the governance of our association. Please take advantage of this benefit and come and participate in the Houston Square and Round Dance Council. Remember it is your association and it's direction and leadership come from you the dancers of the Houston District.

CLUB CHAT

What is happening in your clubs?

March and April were busy months for Houston Area Camping Squares. We had a great time hosting the Texas State Camping Squares in March. The Newman's Castle tour was fun; we recommend going if you get the chance. The Texas State Federation of Square and Round Dancers Officers visited Texas State Camping Squares Saturday night. Part of the after party was a tip with all boy and all girl squares. Of course, the girls were better dancers. In April, we celebrated two anniversaries. HACS has turned the Big 40! We celebrated with a bar-b-q dinner and fun dancing to Tim Tyl and Martha Koslosky. Walt and Loraine Autry celebrated their 72nd Wedding Anniversary with us on April 10. Congratulations to this very special couple. Spring is a great time to be in the country. We look forward to seeing you at our dances. Our schedule is on our website: www.houstoncampingsquares.com You don't have to be a camper to come dance and play with us — we're looking forward to seeing you.

Hanger Squares Jubilee is coming up on May 2 with a fine group of callers and cuers. Be there - in a square. H.S.R.D.C. would like to thank Hanger Squares for hosting the Trade N Buy in April.

Dancing Across Texas.....

by Carolyn Smith

Preston and I and the Houston Area Camping Squares danced and played with the Texas State Camping Squares March 13-15 at Coushatta RV Ranch in Bellville. Houston Area Camping Squares is lucky in that we are a member of both HSRDC and Texas State Camping Squares. Texas State Camping Squares has two campouts each year — one in Spring and one in Fall— and host duties are rotated among the member clubs. This March was our turn to host. Members from Camping Squares of East Texas, Heart of Texas Camping Squares and North Texas Camping Squares came.

Mother nature wasn't very kind to us for this campout. There had been a lot of rain so several of the members from North Texas and East Texas couldn't get their RV's out of their parking spaces without getting stuck. So we had several couples staying in hotels. Luckily the rain had cleared in Bellville/Houston.

We started the weekend with a tour and lunch at Newman's Castle, a real castle complete with moat. Several of us were knighted — we had to defend the castle from invaders. Only King Newman was allowed to fire the catapult. Jerry Edwards and Mike Barnes were locked in the dungeon. The Friday night dance was a casual dance called by Brice Hesche and cued by Terry Pimm.

Saturday there was a pot luck lunch with lots of good food. Followed by a business meeting. 2015-2016 officers were elected. New officers are Howard and Sandra Rowan (Camping Squares of East Texas), President; Clarence and Wanda Baker (Heart of Texas Camping Squares), 1st Vice President; Lonnie and Butch Lonidier (North Texas), 2nd Vice President; Preston and Carolyn Smith (Houston Area Camping Squares), Treasurer; and Terry and Jamie Pimm (Houston Area Camping Squares), Secretary. After the meeting were several card games, naps and sightseeing.

Saturday night started with a grand march. We were visited by the Texas State Federation of Square and Round Dancers officers. Brice Hesche, Brian White and Terry Pimm, called and cued a great dance. The dance was followed by an after party which had two parts. A "competition" between an all girl square and an all boy square with Brice and Brian calling.

The dancers were the Federation Officers and TSCS officers. The girls won. Jamie revealed the answers to the Camping Squares Who Done It game which started Friday night. "Senior Moments" was presented by Carolyn and Marlene Payne. The night closed out with lots of laughter and card games.

The weekend closed out Sunday morning with breakfast and a devotional lead by Linda Edwards.

It was fun visiting with our friends from around the state. All dancers are invited to our campouts – you don't have to own an RV to come play with us.

The "official hugger" must have hugged the wrong person. Not sure what Mike did to end up in the stockade

DANCE

Meanwhile... Back at the Ranch

Chicken Ranch that is!

Fairbees held their Chicken Ranch Special on April 16th with Gary Sanders calling a great dance. Gary had done his homework and throughout the night had tidbits about the Chicken Ranch to pass on to everyone. Our celebrity guests certainly made the night interesting. In the middle of the dance, Melvin P. Thorpe (Ken Hooper) took over the microphone and went into a rage about the Chicken Ranch and how callers were the ones bringing the business to Miss Mona's place and he wanted Miss Mona run out of town.

Miss Mona (Carol Hooper) stood her ground and gave Melvin a verbal spanking. Sheriff Ed Earl (Rick Goetz), upon hearing shouting, immediately took control of the situation and stood up for Miss Mona and her business. He then proceeded to run Melvin right out of town, never to darken our doors again. What a fun nite, the food was great, the caller terrific and the friendship superb!

Many thanks to Bill Lewis for the photographs.
