We have a condensed version of the Where'n'When this month. Susan Pittman, our editor, is recovering from eye surgery and is unable to put together the publication this month. I am filling in for her. Hopefully I did not miss anything.

Houston Area Camping Squares... It’s already June. We were blessed last month with beautiful weather that wasn’t hot yet! We celebrated Cinco de Mayo with a taco bar for our pot luck. Mexican songs were included in our rounds by Terry Pimm and singing calls from Brice Hesche.

This month we are dancing June 2-4 and are having a guest caller for our Saturday night dance. Bill Varley will be sharing his talents as a caller and serenading us each tip. We would love to have you come join us June 3rd. Coushatte RV Ranch is between Sealy and Bellville off Hwy 36. See our website houstoncampingsquares.com for a map.

Our sad news is Brice and Debbie are retiring from calling for our club. This means we are in a search for a new club caller. In that regards, we would like to encourage new callers to come out and visit. We are having an “Open Mic” Night on August 11. Please contact Brice at 832-683-3331, Jamie at 832-419-4958, or Janet at 214-783-0974.

The Tomball Promenaders have a busy June and July. The thirty students who have been working with the always encouraging and patient Dennis Ray will enjoy Graduation on June 19th.

There are two big dances in July. We are honored to be hosting the Teen Scholarship Fund Dance on July 13th. This is an opportunity for our entire dancing community to come together to support our youngest dancers and enjoy the calling of Fred Goynes at the same time. The following week, on July 20th, KO Jeanes and Martha Koslosky will guide us through square and round dancing at our annual Hot Pepper Dance. Come join us!
