TEEN SCHOLARSHIPS

*who, what and why
and the winner is..... (see page 10)*

Established in memory of Frank and Mildred Monk, past Teen Coordinator of Texas State Federation of Square and Round Dancing, the Teen Scholarship Programs advances education and promotes teen-aged square and round dancing by providing an ongoing program of college scholarship to be presented to graduating high school seniors active in square dance activities.

Funds are collected throughout the year from various activities. HSRDC has a Teen Scholarship dance each year. Various clubs also contribute through special dances and other activities.

The scholarships are awarded each summer at the Texas State Festival. Applicants can apply via a form at www.squaredancetx.org. Scholarship award candidates are selected from applicants in the year of their graduation from a Texas high school. Applicants must have completed lessons and be active members of a dance activity-related club for at least two years prior to the application deadline. The club of which the student is a member must be a member in good standing of the Texas State Federation of Square and Round Dancers.

The number and amount of scholarships each year are contingent on the amount collected for the scholarship fund and the number of qualified applicants. The deadline to apply falls in March each year. Check the TSFSRD website for exact dates and copies of the application form.

HSRDC has been fortunate to have a number of teens be selected for scholarships each year. Scholarship are paid to the school which the teen is enrolled after proof of enrollment is submitted.

Stifling an urge to dance is bad for your health — it rusts your spirit and your hips.

Presidents' Message

July marks the halfway point in the year with many more events to come. Some highlights from the year so far include the 147 new dancers we have in the Greater Houston area. We have enjoyed all of the Graduation ceremonies and meeting with the students. We hope to see everyone dancing around town.

The State Festival in Waco was a big success. We enjoyed seeing all of our dance friends from Houston and around the State.

Thanks to all of the Houston-area dancers that helped make "Waco the Scene in Twenty Sixteen."

Linda is working hard to finalize the Hoedown Schedule, and she plans to have it ready for the August publication. It should have something for everyone. And make sure you register early to be included in our Early Bird Incentive drawing. We have already awarded one $50 Moody Gardens Gift Card, and we look forward to awarding another one soon. We just need 50 additional registrations. See our ad about the drawing in this issue.

Hugs,
*Jerry & Linda

DANCE ACROSS TEXAS

Waco was the Scene for 2016 and it took a village to put on such a production. Many names will be mentioned in articles on subsequent pages, but as registration chairperson, I have some people I want to thank. This was my first time to be a chairperson for such an event. While the pre-registration was busy, especially in the last month, I could not have done this without the help of volunteers from HSRDC.

Co-chairs Bridgett & Troy Brown were there with us, or giving us a break, most of the time. Their help and moral support was fantastic. Dave & Carol Laufenberg provided supplies (aka cash box and change) and a few hugs that were needed. I'm not sure we expected nearly as many walk-in registrations as we had.

Betty Boehnke, Tom & Joan Miskelly, Brian & Sue Ausburn, Jamie & Terry Pimm, Bill & Beverly Bellomy, Ken & Sandy Monroe, Donna Meiers, Bob & Pat Lester and Joel & Diane Robinson. I thank you so much for your help and the time you spent taking registration. It was slow at times and crazy at times. If I left anyone off, please accept my apologies, that weekend is now a blur in my mind. I thank you all for your help, your support and your time that you gave when you could have been dancing.

THAT'S A WRAP!

What an exciting Festival weekend! Were you there for the fun or did you miss out? Over 500 dancers attended the 54th Annual Festival weekend.

The Texas State Callers Association hosted a fun and lively Trails End Dance. The Brazos room of the Waco Convention Center was full of dancers. What a great "opening night" for festival. Celebrity callers Brad Caldwell, K.O. Jeanes, Wade Driver and Wayne Weston really had the dancers on their toes. Brad Caldwell was also the cuer for the evening. K.O. Jeanes was the winner of Caller Idol III. Be sure to ask K.O. to model his crown. Other contestants were Wade Driver and Wayne Weston. Great singing guys!

Pre-Festival on Friday was a lot of fun. Wade Driver, Bob Baier, K.O. Jeanes and Mark Prow called and cued a great dance. The Parade of Stars was a lot of fun. Celebrities seen in the parade and on the dance floor included Judy Garland as Dorothy from the Wizard of Oz, Debbie Reynolds, Mae West, Jackie Gleason, John Wayne and many others. The night ended with dancing on the old Brazos River Bridge.

Festival Saturday began with dancing and the three panels. The fashion show was a delight. Nivia Wilson, Golden Gulf Coast SRDA, modeled the dress she wore in the TSFSRD 25th fashion show in 1987. (Wow – they both looked great.) The Andrews Sisters

(aka Debbie Verhoef, Jessica Barnes and Rachel Barnes) performed Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy. Stu Ringer wowed everyone with his rendition of "Ole Man River" (from "Show Boat") and "Mariah" (from "Paint Your Wagon"). Ten Teen Scholarships were awarded during the opening ceremonies. The 2016-2017 TSFSRD officers were also introduced during the opening ceremonies. Everyone danced all afternoon and evening until their feet cried "no more!"

Sunday morning after devotional and the business meeting good-byes were said and dancers returned home to rest and dream of Festival 2017. 2017 Festival will be hosted by Red River Valley SRDA in Wichita Falls where we'll "Deck – uh Dance – the Halls in Wichita Falls June 8-11.

This is your roving reporter's last report for DYWTW News and Radio (Dance Your Way to Waco) Station where Waco is the Scene for Twenty Sixteen.

DANCE THE HALLS IN WICHITA FALLS

JUNE 8-11, 2017

WOW! What a great State Festival! Waco Was truly the Scene for Twenty Sixteen... Dancers from all over the World came to enjoy a great three days. Brad Caldwell and The Texas Callers Association officers started off with a great dance and...yes, an after party. Our own K.O. Jeanes won the Caller Idol III. Ask him to show you his tiara.

Friday proved to be a success as well. Dancers enjoyed the morning and afternoon dance provided by the Houston callers and the cuers from the Texas Round Dance Teachers Association. The evening session began with a "Parade of Stars" featuring characters such as Dorothy and The Scarecrow, "Stars", Wyatt Earp and Josephine, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Dolly Parton, Kenny Rogers, James Bond, Sam Houston, Cat Woman, Kojak, Greta Garbo, Cowboys and Cowgirls, lady from "Down Argentine Way" and Jackie Gleason, "Lord of the Rings" characters, any many more all led in by our very own Pink ladies and T Bird, Twyla and Charles Woody, Pre-Festival Chairmen. Callers, Wade Driver (007), Bob Baier (008), K.O. Jeanes (009), and cuers, Pam and Mark Prow (010) provided an outstanding dance program for the evening.

Wait...it is not over yet. Do you remember the promise of 'Dancing on the Bridge'? Well, it happened. The number of dancers was not registered but the bridge was filled to capacity!!!

Saturday's dance program was another success. Great callers and cuers from over the state provided a program of line dancing, A dancing, Plus, mainstream, a Teen hall and 2-3 and 3-4 level rounds with great teaches. Dancers could not help but have a great time. Wade Driver set the square dance schedule and Martha and Ed Koslosky provided the round dance schedule. If your taste for the morning was not dancing, many enjoyed making origami boxes with Linda Edwards; making wreaths with Donna Meiers; or the session on how to create your own web site with Garland Smith. The "Fashionable Stroll" featured 44 models from around the state strolling thru "Waco" park while going to a square dance. Twyla and Charles Woody received many, many accolades for the outstanding program that was provided.

Stu Ringer received a standing ovation for his performances of "Ole Man River" and 'Mariah". The Opening Ceremonies also included the announcement of the Leroy Award given to Howard and Sandra Rowan from East Texas for their years of service and dedication to square dancing and the recognition and presentation of the Teen Scholarship winners. Nathaniel Stinson from the Alvin Country Squares was just one of the 10 recipients. K.O. and Linda Jeanes, Grand March Chairmen, played movie theme music as each district from the state began the Grand March carrying a movie banner: The Magnificent Seven, 9 to 5, Stagecoach, Driving Miss Daisy, The Alamo, Apollo 13, How the West Was Win, Jungle Book, The Godfather, Star Wars, Chariots of Fire, The Outlaw Josey Wells, Ghostbuster, Independence Day, High Noon, Saturday Night Fever, Lion King, Paint Your Wagon, and ET.

Dancers were still dancing until the doors were closing at 10:30. Everyone had a good time. They danced all they could, visited with old friends, made new friends, and vowed to see each other next June in Wichita Falls for the "Dance the Halls in Wichita Falls", June 8-11, 2017.

IF YOU DID NOT HAVE A GOOD TIME IT WAS BECAUSE YOU WERE NOT THERE!

Houston dancers can be very proud of a job well done as host of the Waco is the Scene for Twenty Sixteen State Festival. We met the challenge of hosting a state dance outside our district. Like other challenges, we made ourselves proud.

Roxie Walker and Bruce Behrens
2016 Assistant Festival Chairmen

CLUB CHAT

What is happening in your clubs?

Alvin Country Squares and friends braved the rain in May for our Spring Fling. Gary Sanders and Tammy Lee brought their own brand of sunshine with them, and it wasn't long before they chased the rain away. Tammy had the round dancers twinkling and twirling around the room, and Gary kept the squares engaged with fun patter and great singing calls. Some of the dancers took some time to Pin the Tail on the Cow, and raised $15 to add to the Teen Scholarship fund.

Our next theme dance was on June 9th, when we had hot dogs and apple pie! Marilyn was kept away by high waters, and we missed her greatly, but Gary Sanders kept everyone smiling and moving all night long. We raised $15 for the Teen Scholarship fund in a fun baseball activity. Prizes were peanuts, candy, sodas, and raisins - baseball snacks!

Alvin's last dance will be on June 30th, and will feature a special event. Nathaniel Stinson will graduate from high school and receive his diploma in a special ceremony during the dance. Alvin is thrilled to be able to host this ceremony, and we hope that our square dance friends will be able to join us and celebrate with Nathaniel.

Our Anniversary Dance will be on July 14th, with National Caller Craig Abercrombie and National Cuer Al Frazer. We'll kick off the evening with a fried chicken dinner at 6:30, early rounds at 7:00, and the dance at 7:30. It is sure to be a rip-roarin' good time, and we hope all our friends can come and join us!

Starting July 7th, The Tomball Promenaders will be dancing at the Tomball VFW Hall on Alice Road. We will have a nice wooden floor for our dancers and visitors. Due to VFW requirements, beverages may not be brought into the hall; however, they will be available for purchase from the VFW: Coffee 50¢
Soda and water $1.00

Come and visit us for our Hot Pepper Dance on July 14th. K.O. Jeans will be calling and Martha and Ed Koslosky will be cueing rounds between tips. Early rounds will be from 7:00 to 7:30.

2016 Teen Scholarship Winner

Congratulations to Nathaniel Stinson, son of David & Kelly Stinson. Nathaniel is one of 10 Teen Scholarship winners in Texas. Nathaniel is a member of Alvin Country Squares and Hanger Squares. Way to go, Nathaniel!
