PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

THINK HOEDOWN! Think registering for Hoedown. All you need to do is to fill out the registration form which is part of the Hoedown flyer in this issue of the Where n' When. Send it along with a check to Dave and Vicky Wills whose address is given on the form.

The Third Quarterly Meeting of HSRDC is scheduled for August 7 at 4:30 p.m. Location information can be found in this issue. The most important items of business for this meeting are the election of the Executive Board for 2011 (President, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary) by the delegates and the election of District Directors by the clubs in each district. Remember each club is entitled to four (4) delegates at the Council meetings.

We are repeating the information on nominating a Dancer of the Year and a Caller/Cuer of the Year in this issue of the Where n' When. The awards will be presented on Saturday evening at the Hoedown in October. The deadline for letters of nomination to be sent to the President of HSRDC is September 1, 2010. Send letters to Jim and Dee Stephens, 1836 Bending Stream Drive, League City, Texas 77573, or email them to jstephens72@verizon.net.

On a personal note, thanks for all your prayers, your cards, and your expressions of concern regarding Jim's recent back fusion surgery. Jim must wear his "turtle shell" brace and is not allowed to dance for one more month. He can't wait until it is his "Time to Dance" again. Meanwhile, we both "hope you dance".

Jim and Dee Stephens

NOMINATIONS FOR DANCER OF THE YEAR AWARD

AND FOR CALLER/CUER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Each year, two special awards are given at the Houston Hoedown. The honorees are elected by a majority vote of the Houston Square and Round Dance Council Board, active, past recipients of the awards and the District Directors. The nominees for Dancer of the Year must be active members of an HSRDC Club, and the Caller/Cuer nominee must be active within the HSRDC area. These awards are to call attention to those who have worked and given of themselves in the past year. It is not a popularity award. Mail or email your nominations with a short letter stating the reasons you believe your nominee would be deserving of this honor by September 1, 2010, to your Council Presidents.

Jim and Dee Stephens

1836 Bending Stream Drive League City, Texas 77573

MEMORIES WANTED

In preparation for the 2010 Houston Hoedown in Galveston, October 29-31, articles are being requested for a special display planned for the event. The name of the display will be "A Time to Dance...A Time to Reflect." Many dancers have entertaining stories to share about how they became involved in dancing, along with memorable events throughout the years. Please submit your articles telling about times which are special to you to Jim and Dee Stephens by e-mail at cdeeste@gmail.com or by mail, 1836 Bending Stream Drive, League City, Texas 77573.

CLUB PRESIDENTS

Please look over your information on the Member Clubs page. If the information needs to be changed, send the changes to Mary Pickens (Editor) and me. If the information is correct, please take time to let us know that too. Also be sure to tell us the level of dance (Mainstream, Mainstream/Plus, Plus, Advanced, etc.) for your club so that we can include that information.

Thanks, Jim Stephens, jstephens722@verizon.net

Thank You Friends!

Thank you! Your friendliness, hard work, and hospitality made the 2010 Texas State Square & Round Festival a great success! We have received many notes of thanks and appreciation on your behalf from dancers across the State.

Pre-Festival on Friday was a tremendous success. Dancers are still talking about dancing on the beach! The complaint we heard was that it was too hard to choose which hall to dance in on Friday night. The Pre-Festival Committee and Houston did an excellent job planning and organizing Pre-Festival.

Festival Dance on Saturday was lively and fun. The Next Generation of Callers, Patrick Lundy and Zack Reynolds, did an excellent job calling the grand march tip. We're so proud of them. Thanks Patrick and Zack! There was so much dancing it was hard to decide which hall to dance in.

Attendance was great with total registration at 983! Way to go Texas!

Thanks for making the 48th Festival truly a Dance by the Bay — Escape the Every Day!

REMEMBRANCE of the Life of CAROLYN SHARBER
October 12, 1934 - June 17, 2010

CAROLYN SHARBER, 75, died June 17. Her sudden death occurred as she was fulfilling one of her many volunteer roles – assisting Texas Lovin' Cloggers prior to a performance in Branson, Missouri.

Born in Elizabeth City, North Carolina, Carolyn spent 39 years in classrooms in New Orleans and Houston. She and her husband, Bill, recently celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary. Childhood sweethearts, they attended grade school and high school together and graduated from East Carolina University.

Upon her retirement from teaching physical education, Carolyn began a second "career" of volunteerism. Her commitments included Braes Interfaith Ministries, Omega House (an AIDS hospice), Interfaith Care Partners, and the Livestock Committee of the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo. She was a member of Willow Meadows Baptist Church where she faithfully did whatever task needed to be done.

Known for her sense of humor, compassionate spirit, and practical approach to work and play, Carolyn was able to bring a lighter side to many of the serious issues connected to her volunteerism. Fifteen years ago, upon being told that hospice volunteers were needed for cooking, cleaning and patient care at Omega House, Carolyn quickly acknowledged that she would happily do the laundry but since she kept her cookbooks in her oven at home, she wouldn't be cooking anywhere else either. At the church, her aversion to cooking prompted other volunteers to capture her one experience in the kitchen on film.

Upon hearing of her death, numerous friends and acquaintances began recounting their experiences with Carolyn's selfless acts of befriending the outcast and recruiting of others to join her in her volunteer activities.

"Carolyn gave her life to service, caring for everyone but herself," said her husband Bill. "You would never find a better friend. I could never have found a better partner."
