PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Many HSRDC clubs begin lessons in September. If yours is one of those clubs, we encourage you to advertise your lessons on the HSRDC website, squarethru.com. There is a special link on the website for lessons. Send your lesson information to our webmaster, Leona Kain, at lrkain@swbell.net. Also, remember that the Texas State Callers Association provides grants of up to $250 to clubs to help defray the cost of lessons. Information and applications can be found online at <http://www.txcallers.com/>.

September is your last chance to pre-register for the 2010 Houston Hoedown. The deadline for sending your registration form to Dave and Vicky Wills is October 1. There are deadlines for hotel reservations also. The deadline for the Inn At The Waterpark is September 28, and the deadline for the Moody Gardens Hotel is October 1. All the information you need to register for both the Hoedown and the hotel are found in the Hoedown ad in this Where n' When.

This year we are including in the Where n' When a list of the committees that work to plan and organize the Hoedown and then put everything together so that dancers can have a great Hoedown experience. As we have visited clubs this year, many dancers have told us that they would like to help with Hoedown. For those dancers and any other dancers who would like to help, this is your opportunity to be part of the exciting work of making Hoedown happen. Simply call the Chairman of the Committee you want to be a part of and volunteer.

We have also included a draft copy of this year's dance schedule. The schedule features the Houston Callers Association on Friday night and national caller Jerry Story on Saturday night. Mark and Pam Prow will be cuing both nights. Additionally, you will have the opportunity to dance from 9 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. on Saturday. So look over the schedule and choose your "time to dance."

Jim and Dee Stephens
