My name is Buzz Chapman and I would like to reintroduce myself to the Greater Houston Square Dance community, and let you know that I would be delighted to call a dance for your group or club.

I am originally from Massachusetts. After being introduced to square dancing by my parents in the 60's, I signed up for lessons and after two months began calling lessons with Red Bates. As a teenager in high school I began calling dances and taught over 1000 teens how to square dance. I continued to learn the art of calling from Earl Johnston and Al Brundage based in the Northeast. In the 60's and 70's I traveled the country calling square dances and appeared at several National Conventions and local squared dance conventions.

After college I entered corporate America and eventually started my first company. As that company grew I realized that I could not build a company and continue to call square dances. When I stepped away from calling in the mid 70's I served as the club caller for eleven clubs and was calling five to six nights a week.

I returned to corporate America in 1980 and was transferred to Houston, Texas in 1982. I began dancing with Jay Norris at one of his clubs. Jay gave me the opportunity to call a few tips, and from there I began calling for clubs in Texas including Hey Lollies, Hanger Squares, Cane Raisers, Fair Bees and many others. I also served as President of the Houston Callers Association. In September of 1985, I was transferred out of Houston, and my square dance calling career ended. At that time, I had two clubs that I called for regularly Centers In and Sunbeams.

This summer, I decided to return to square dancing and calling. I am grateful to Tom Berra and the Katy Prairie Promenaders for providing me with the opportunity to take a refresher course in Plus dancing, and the Renegades helping me regain my calling skills

If you are interested in having me call a dance, or if you need more information, please contact me.

Thank you and God Bless,
Harry "Buzz" Chapman
