MEET THE NEW OFFICERS OF HSRDC.....

Serving as 2nd Vice President is Jerry Tucker. Jerry and his wife Nanette began dancing in 2001 with the Fairbees, Cane Raisers and Rainbow Rockers. Jerry claims it took these three sets of lessons to learn right and left thru! They quickly joined the HSRDC executive board and moved into the president's position in 2006. During these past 12 years they have also served as president of three clubs, in addition to presently serving as President of the Texas State Camping Squares. Jerry and Nanette have over 1100 visitations throughout Texas. They expect this number to expand over the next few years. HSRDC is grateful for his leadership and enthusiasm for our square and round dance activity.

Treasurers for 2013 are Jim and Sandy Hallmark. Jim and Sandy are members of Brazos Bottom Belles and Beaus where they have served as vice president, president and are presently serving as treasurer. Sandy has worked as a dental hygienist for 40 years. Jim recently retired as a CPA; however, he still retains a few responsibilities in that area. They both love to travel and are avid golfers. Jim also recently retired from being a referee for 48 years. Sandy is also a Houston Rocket "Senior Dancer". HSRDC is grateful for their energies and skills.

Our HSRDC secretaries for 2013 are Bill and Beverly Bellomy. They are members of Bluebonnet Squares and Tomball Promenades. In 2011 and 2012 they served as Hospitality Director for HSRDC. Bill is a graduate of Texas A & M with a degree in mechanical engineering. Although retired twice, he is currently teaching classes at Lone Star College. Beverly is a graduate from The University of Texas School of Nursing. She continues to work in this field. Bill is proud to be a native Texan and Beverly is proud to be a native Houstonian. They believe that dancing keeps them young. HSRDC is grateful for their commitment and energies for our dance activity.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to 2013! Would you believe that our council got its start 65 years ago? Who would have thought while some of us were mere children playing around the dance floor while our parents danced that this activity would still be in existence? Many of us would have denied liking it at the time, others would have emphatically stated we would never do that, and some just thought it was an old folk's dance.

Our goal this year is to honor the clubs that have kept dancing to keep this activity alive, while honoring those who in the past worked their way into the annals of the Houston Square and Round Dance Council history.

It is with grateful hearts that we were able to serve during this time in history of the council. Bruce was one of those children playing around the dance floor while his parents and friends were the charter members of the Fairbees Square Dance club. He began his lessons in 1979. He danced and belonged to several clubs, dancing basic to advanced, then to round dancing. Roxie on the other hand has tried to play "catch-up" since 2000.

Being Presidents was never on our "Bucket List". However, we are truly enjoying the responsibility of keeping this activity alive for our children and grandchildren, and the generations to come.

Come join us while we have fun

Celebrating 65 years of Continuous Dancing

Bruce and Roxie
