PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

What a wonderful HSRDC President's Ball! We had around 200 dancers from fifteen HSRDC clubs plus independents and the Swinging Seniors in attendance. Twenty-two presidents from these clubs were honored. They were Rick Shawback-Alvin Country Squares; Brian and Sue Ausburn-Bluebonnets Squares; Bob Baier- Bob's Best; Wayne and Donna Meiers-Brazos Bottom Belles and Beaus; Craig Terrell- El Campo Cotton Squares; Ken Hooper-Fairbees; Dick Rathjen-Frontier Squares; Lewis and Sarah Perkins-Hey Lollies; Ron and Mary Lejeune-Houston Camping Squares; Dave and Vicky Wills-Humble Wildcatters; Jim and Ann McGovney-Katy Prairie Promenaders;

Gary and Lyn Sanders-Strawberry Squares; Dena Baier-Syncopation Cloggers; Roger and Carol Bartel-The Woodlands Stars. Bob Baier and Georgann Francis provided great dance music. Thank you Frontier Squares for allowing us to use your facility for this great event. Thank you District Directors Dave and Vicky Wills, Tom and Judy Welker, Jeff and Margaret Dixon, Jim and Dee Stephens, and Cindy Markos and many other friends that helped with setting up, decorating, and with the cleanup of the hall and kitchen.

The positions of Chaplain and Publicity Directors are positions that require addressing the public. Bob and Pat Lester serve as the Chaplains for the Council. The primary responsibilities of this position are to provide a prayer for all HSRDC meetings and Hoedown and act as a liaison between the clubs and Executive officers regarding any personal illness, sorrows, and/or joys affecting members of the Clubs and HSRDC. Since most clubs meet these needs for their members the Chaplain seldom sends cards to individuals within the clubs. However, he is available for any special needs of any club member, such as a chaplain for funeral services. This position is appointed each year.

The Publicity Directors primary responsibility is to promote square and round dancing and HSRDC whenever possible through news media, newspaper, radio, TV, and internet. They maintain an updated list of publications within the Houston area, radio stations that provide free public service announcements, contacts local media for Hoedown, and send announcements and pictures to local newspapers and the State Federation TEXAS STAR. Bill and Kaye Lewis and Jerry and Nanette Tucker are serving as Publicity Directors in 2013. Troy and Bridgett Brown are serving as Publicity Social Network (Facebook). (This position is new in 2013.) All positions are appointed each year, however, several have served from year to year. This is one position that is in need of additional volunteers.

Come join us while we have fun

Bruce and Roxie

HSRDC 2013 President's Ball in Review

In spite of heavy traffic dancers made it to the Westminster Academy in Webster in good spirits. They were greeted by Marilyn Quartero and Suzan Machota from the Frontier Squares. After Chaplain, Bob Lester, blessed the food, dancers lined up to get their favorites from the array of food that they brought. Then came all the wonderful desserts!!!! Many dancers found their way back into the kitchen for additional helpings. Georgann began the early rounds with a host of round dancers dancing a waltz. As this number grew dancers began taking down the dining tables to make more room. As soon as Bob Baier started calling he had the floor filled with square dancing. With his great energies and Georgann's cueing all dancers filled the room with laughter and joyful fellowship.

About 8:45, Presidents Roxie Walker and Bruce Behrens took the stage. After a few brief facts on the Houston Square and Round Dance Council, introductions began. Preston and Carolyn Smith were introduced as Past Presidents of Texas State Federation of Square and Round Dance (2009). Past presidents of HSRDC followed. They were Ray Montgomery (1977-78), Cindy Markos (1983-84), Preston and Carolyn Smith (2003), Tom and Judy Welker (2004 and 2005), Jerry and Nanette Tucker (2006), Ralph and Gaylene Bynum (2008), Jim and Dee Stephens (2010), and Charles and Twyla Woody (2011 and 2012). Jerry and Nanette Tucker were introduced as the President of Texas State Camping Squares. Recognition of the HSRDC elected and appointed officers followed: Jerry and Linda Edwards-1st Vice-Presidents; Jerry Tucker-2nd Vice President; Jim Hallmark-Treasurer; Bill and Beverly Bellomy-Secretary; District Directors-Dave and Vicky Wills, Tom and Judy Welker, Jeff and Margaret Dixon, Jim and Dee Stephens, Cindy Marcos, Ralph and Gaylene Bynum, and Joy Gould; Bob and Pat Lester-Chaplain, Wayne and Donna Meiers-Class and Educational Coordinators; Dena Baier-Clogging Liaison; Dan and Marlene Payne-Historian; Robert and Karen Hlavinka-Hospitality Director; Insurance Directors-Cindy Marcos and Gaylene Bynum; John and Paulette Brown-IRS Liaison; Gaylene Bynum-Parliamentarian; Bill and Kaye Lewis-Photographer; Publicity Directors-Bill and Kaye Lewis, Jerry and Nanette Tucker and Troy and Bridget Brown (Social Network); Troy and Bridget Brown-TSFSRD Membership Coordinator; Susan and Darrell Pittman-Where N When Asst.-Editor (electronic edition).

Presidents from fourteen clubs were honored and presented with a coffee mug filled with a variety of candy. They were Rick Shawback (Alvin), Brian and Sue Ausburn (Blubonnets), Bob Baier (Bob's Best), Wayne and Donna Meiers (Brazos Bottom Belles and Beaus), Craig Terrell (ElCampo Cotton Squares), Ken Hooper (Fairbees), Dick Rathjen (Frontier), Lewis and Sarah Perkins (Hey Lollies), Ron and Mary LeJeune (Camping Squares), Jim and Ann McGovney (Katy Promenaders), Gary and Lyn Sanders (Strawberry Squares), Dena Baier (Syncopation Cloggers), and Roger and Carol Bartel (The Woodland Stars). Each coffee mug had this year's logo "Celebrating 65 Years Of Continuous Dancing" imprinted on both sides of the mug. These mugs are available for purchase.

Each table was dressed in either in red, white, or blue covering with 'pots of red flags' and stars strewn around. Each 'pot of red flags' had a base of either blue or white glittered bucket with an attached HSRDC logo. Each of four rods had a red felt, glittered 'flag' with a club's name attached on both sides. Each club name was once a club or still is in the HSRDC. A fifth rod held a picture of each past president of HSRDC and the year(s) they served.

The Houston Square and Round Dance Council is the oldest council in the state. The now Top of Texas Council was once two councils that also began its organization in 1948, but at a later date evolved to become one. A couple of other councils in the state became organized shortly there after. In 1949 when the first set of by laws were set in place there were 71 clubs and 5000 dancers in the Houston area. The first President's Ball was held in 1976 to honor and recognize officers of each club. There is much more rich history about our council that can be found on our web site squarethru.com. We have Bonnie Dudley, Past HSRDC President (1997) and Historian, and Helen Dean, Historian to thank for much of what is written there.

~~~~~NEW! NEW! NEW! HSRDC coffee mugs commemorating our 65 years of continuous dancing. These are 11 oz. mugs with the 2013 logo on two sides. (Pictured below) The price for each is $8. To order contact Bruce or Roxie at roxie\_w@hotmail.com. You may purchase these at any council meeting, or use the order form below. We will not ship them to you, but will bring them to you if multiple orders to one club is requested.

FEAUTURED CLUBS OF THE MONTH

Ganado Mustang Square Dance Club

The Ganado Mustang Square Dance Club began November, 1976. Fred Goynes was the caller then and now. Our first year was an eventful one, with many 'firsts' that became yearly traditions. We attended our first State Festival, enjoyed our first 'Bay' party and had the unique experience of dancing in the Jackson County Parade on our first float. (The float was a flatbed trailer without sides!!!) Our 'Big' dance, STAMPEDE , was started 1980.

By 1982 we ventured away from home base, dancing at the Chicken Fest, Bay Fest, Sausage Fest, Shrimp Fest, Crossroads Dances, Fish Fries, Chili Cook-Off and yes, even Colorado's Fun Valley.

Square dance clubs are known for partying and the Mustangs are no exception. Some of our activities include many after parties, swimming parties and numerous club special dances, with no doubt countless pounds of food being consumed. We have been fortunate to have had the support of our wonderful caller, Fred Goynes and his lovely wife, Kim; our neighboring clubs who always come out and support our special events and our own members who just plain work together to get things done. We dance in the 1st United Methodist Church annex, 200 Twin Oaks, Blvd., Ganado, TX...Tuesday nights - 7:30-9:30 (dark 5th Tuesday)...

FEATURED CLUBS OF THE MONTH

FRIENDSWOOD HANGER SQUARES

The Hanger Squares club was born out of the Family riders equestrian club. In 1974 the Family Riders began occasional square dancing sessions in Jones Hangar, a real hangar, airplane and all. These lessons led to organizing the Hanger Squares. The word hangar was originally misspelled and for some reason was never corrected.

The hangar was built by Dr. Bill and Carolyn Jones in the early 1960's in a grassy field behind their rural home in Friendswood. Today the club continues dancing in the same hangar that was eventually donated to the city and subsequently renovated.

Jack Carrender of Pasadena became the first club caller. The first class graduated in February of 1975. According to Benny Baker, a charter member, the first record called at the hangar was "Glendale Train", and the first visitation was to the Petro Chemical square dance club with Jack Carrender. Other charter members included Dick and Loyce Baille, and Jim and Janice Smith.

After Jack Carrender, there were a number of guest callers including Lou Hackney and Paul Gordner. Lou Hackney became the second club caller, and taught our third class, which graduated in February 1976. The club became a member of the Houston Square and Round Dance Council in July of 1976. Many of our club members have served as both appointed and elected officers of the Council, including two HSRDC presidents and a past president of TSFSRD.

In the fall of 1979 Curtis Byars became the club's third caller and continued to call for us for 30 fun years. In mid 2009 the club experienced a sad and unexpected loss when Curtis died suddenly from a brain aneurysm.

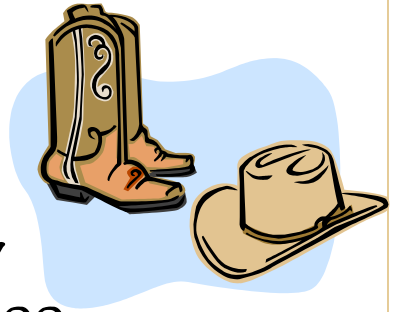

For quite awhile we used a variety of callers and eventually chose Garland Smith as our club caller. Garland is a great match for the Hanger Squares values of fun, fellowship, and visitation, HSRDC activities, and introducing new friends to square dancing.

Over the years, many of our activities such as the Anniversary Dance, annual Jubilee, 5th Saturday specials, Funstitute, mystery trips, and Christmas progressive dinners have established the traditions of our club.

Garland Smith Calling
Terry Pimm Cueing

Students & New Dancers will have the first opportunity to purchase gently used square dance apparel at great prices!!!

A new and innovative approach this year.

Sellers will be furnished a table to display their wares and sell from those tables. The sellers will set their own price and be in charge of their monies and receipts. The council will not intrude on the sellers opportunity by handling money, pricing or sales. Those with items to sell must bring their own change. SELLERS WILL BE ADMITTED AT 2:30 TO SET UP FOR THE TRADE N BUY.

For those who wish to donate their wares to the Teen Scholarship Fund, the council will man a separate table to display and sell those items.

The Trade N Buy is one of the four district wide functions that the HSRDC provides for our clubs and dancers. We hope our clubs and callers will take advantage of this opportunity to bring our dancers from all over to share in the fun and fellowship. This is the best opportunity for clubs to bring their students and new dancers to a city wide function and it also allows the new dancers/students to obtain apparel at a very reasonable price.
