PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

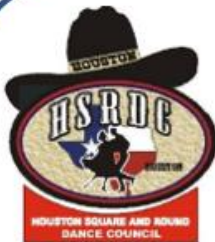

June is filled with many great events. We start off the month with Hanger Squares Graduation where Alvin and Lake Jackson will share graduation with them. It will be a busy night starting with our Council Meeting that was postponed from earlier.

Bluebonnet Squares celebrate another year of Fun, Friendship and Dancing. Fairbees will hold their graduations as we finish off the graduation season.

The State Festival is being hosted by HSRDC this year in Bryan-College Station. Look for the Pre-Festival flyer in this issue, along with information about tours to Messina Hof and the George Bush Library that are being offered on Friday during the Festival. We hope you can join us.

Please join us as together we will Live...we will Love...we will Dance.
