We have a condensed version of the Where'n'When again this month. Susan Pittman, our editor, is still recovering from eye surgery and is unable to put together the publication this month. I am filling in for her. Hopefully I did not miss anything.

Exhibitions

Fairbees supported HSRDC's exhibition on June 16th at our member Clint Callegari's Windsor Village UMC. 15 Fairbees + 2 Friends of Fairbees, participated in the exhibition and they were treated to a BBQ buffet. Dancers circulated around the room visiting with Church members during the nite. Fond memories for all.

Come join us at one of our upcoming Exhibitions. Contact June Walston (713-827-5640) or Carol Teal f (281-507-5298) for sign up or more information. Many thanks to June and Carol for a wonderful job with the Exhibitions this year. You have done a great service to the square dance community.

Tomball Promenaders: Preparations are well underway for our annual Anniversary Dance. Everything will be organized in plenty of time serve up our usual spaghetti dinner and to welcome Ken Bower to the Klein United Methodist Church on September 10th. Be on the lookout for members selling raffle tickets for the $300, $200, and $100 prizes. Y'all come!

We would like to thank everyone that attended Alvin Country Squares 13th Anniversary Dinner and Dance on June 30th. It was so nice to see so many friendly faces from so many clubs. We are so happy you were all able to come out and see our renovated center.

We had 82 people from 12 clubs, including Alvin dancers. We had somewhere between 6 and 8 squares, depending upon the direction from which you were counting. We gave away 2 club banners, one to Camping Squares and one to the Fairbees. Hanger, the 4B's, and Frontier were not far behind in the count. The people traveling the farthest were J.R. and Wendy Smith from the Canoe Dancers out of Milton, FL. They came over for an evening of fun with their 2 granddaughters. Stu Ringer and Marilyn Waguespack were awesome, as usual; and we will definitely invite them both back.

Alvin has permanently moved to dancing on Friday evenings from 7-9:15pm. On evenings when Gary Sanders is calling, he will also teach Plus lessons during the dance. Come on out and join us! Thanks again for your support.

We would like to share our love of round dancing with you. These lessons will cover the Basic Level figures enabling you to dance many of the Phase 2 Waltzes or Phase 3 Rumba and Cha Cha routines-cued at square dances. The schedule of rhythms above is dependent on consistent attendance of the dancers, which will reduce the need to repeat previous lessons. We realize there will be times when attendance is not possible and will do our best to help you catch up. We hope to C U ROUND
